PERFORMANCE IS OUR MISSION.

What made us one of the biggest players in the industry? Our love of all sorts of two-wheelers, from race bike to classic scooter. It is what drives us to excel every day, whether in global sales or with groundbreaking technical developments.

MAXISCOOT is a global brand from Germany. Our team consists of 60 employees and we have all necessary know-how and experience to deal with all business aspects reaching from product development to sales channels in three languages. Streetbuzz Distribution is without doubt one of the big players in the industry.

We managed to become one of the leading names in motorsports, and our experience and success have been the basis and driving force for our groundbreaking technical developments.

In addition to our already established catalogue for 2-stroke, 4-stroke and dirt bikes we are now expanding our range to include Vespa and vintage mopeds.
